Directions: Enter from the east side of Folsom Library. Once entered, go straight and keep going until you see the elevator on the left, past the reception desk. Enter the elevator and go to the fourth floor. After, take a right, and another immediate right, and the vending machines should be the right of that.

Disabled directions: Enter from the north and south side of Folsom Library (includes ramps for disabled people). Once entered, go straight and keep going until you see the elevator on the left, past the reception desk. Enter the elevator and go to the fourth floor. After, take a right, and another immediate right, and the vending machines should be the right of that.
